If you have a passion for food, why not turn it into an exciting career in hospitality. A fun, flexible, fast paced future is waiting for you!

Complete an expression of interest form

The four-week Future Chef Job Ready program will introduce you to the world of cooking and hospitality. The program takes a unique approach, including a combination of intensive training and work experience in a real commercial kitchen.

This program is FREE* for jobseekers, youth (under 25) and concession students.

To get started, complete the expression of interest form via the QR code below, or at jobsandskills.wa.gov.au/pathways

Complete a short course training program

During the four-week program, you will learn:

- to prepare and present simple dishes;
- how to use a range of food preparation equipment; and
- food safety.

Attend a work placement in a real commercial kitchen

The four-week program includes a total of five days of work placement (one to two days per week). During the work placement, you will:

- gain real, hands on industry experience; and
- secure a 'foot in the door' by working with an employer.

Start your career as a future chef

By completing the Future Chef Job Ready program, you may:

- be offered a chef apprenticeship with your work placement employer;
- be offered other employment within the hospitality sector; or
- decide to do further training.
