

Indigenous VET Scholarships

About the scholarships

Newmont Boddington Gold (NBG) is offering pre-apprenticeship scholarship opportunities in qualifications linked to priority trade areas in NBG's annual apprenticeship program intake or qualifications that are identified to be of benefit to the broader Noongar community.

The scholarships will be awarded to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders preferably from the local Wilman Traditional Owner (TO), Gnaala Karla Booja (GKB) Native Title Claimant Group and/or Noongar Aboriginal people who are enrolled or applying for entry into the identified South Metropolitan TAFE (SM TAFE) pre-apprenticeship pathways.

What is the scholarship?

The scholarship covers the full SM TAFE course fees and $500 towards study costs.

Selection process

SM TAFE and the Jobs and Skill Centres (JSC) can assist applicants to complete the application form and forward applications to NBG for selection for the annual scholarships.

Am I eligible?

To be eligible for this scholarship, you must be:

- an Australian Citizen or Permanent Resident
- of Aboriginal descent with connection with NBG's key Aboriginal stakeholder groups including: Wilman Traditional Owner; Gnaala Karla Booja Native Title Claimant Group; and/or Noongar Aboriginal people
- enrolled or intending to enrol in one of the identified pre-apprenticeship areas.

Applicants will have an interest and commitment to a course of study and interest in a trade career in the mining industry.

Successful recipients may have the opportunity to undertake a work placement at NBG's operation during the pre-apprenticeship training and will be encouraged to apply for an apprenticeship program upon course completion.
